

Spring Classified Staff Excellence Award: Aleksandr Anisimov

Aleksandr Anisimov

Congratulations to Aleksandr Anisimov, recipient of the 2017 Spring Quarter Classified Staff Excellence Award!

Anisimov is an eLearning Systems Specialist for the eLearning department and is described as someone who is “admired, respected, and appreciated by his peers and those he works with.”

Other comments about Anisimov include:

Anisimov is described as being someone who displays and exemplary work performance and “demonstrates what any institution of higher learning should represent: professionalism, academic excellence, and commitment to education.” One individual commented, “Alex is dedicated, resilient, creative, patient and kind. I know if I have an issue, Alex will solve the problem and explain what he’s done to improve the system. He is so very humble, never demanding, yet firm in his convictions.”

Anisimov has much enthusiasm for what he does and goes out of his way to assist faculty and students alike. One person commented, “Numerous times per quarter, I have seen Alex run out of the office and over to the TechHub in the library to help a student with a particularly difficult laptop, tablet or phone issue. He wants to personally see the problem, gather the facts and propose a solution. Often the student is under deadline pressure and Alex is outstanding at bringing a calming presence and logic to the situation. He will also reach out and call students who have requested phone assistance with Canvas issues they are having.”

Anisimov is responsible for providing support for a variety of services and systems to a very diverse group (students, faculty, and staff). One nominator wrote, “Operating complex enterprise scale technology systems requires dedicated individual initiative delivered in a team environment. For example, when rolling out the new Canvas User Interface, Alex applied extra individual effort to maintain user confidence and support, while at the same time moved forward with the team to successfully achieve the implementation we had to complete.”

Described as someone who delivers a “high level of service,” Anisimov’s nominators say that he is “a highly valued member of the eLearning department and CLASS unit. He has a genuine enthusiasm for helping faculty and students. I often receive compliments from faculty and staff about the consistently high level of service that they receive from Alex. Courteous, polite, thorough, effective—are all terms that I have heard frequently.”

Members of Anisimov’s team said, “As a co-worker, as a person, Alex is so worthy of this award!”

Congratulations, as well, to other nominees for the 2017 Spring Quarter Classified Staff Excellence Award:

Kay Martinez is at Custodian 1 for the Custodial Services department. Kay is described as someone who is a hard worker and follows through on her assignments. One nominator said, “Almost every Monday and Wednesday when I arrive at the STEM building at 6:30 a.m., I see Kay Martinez hard at work. She is wiping down table tops and tidying classrooms or using her backpack vacuum cleaner on the ‘miles’ of carpet in the building.” Though working hard, she is described as always taking time to be welcoming towards faculty, staff, and students. One nominator said, "I look forward to saying, "Hello," and exchanging a few words with her in the morning ... Kay's excellent work ethic and affability have come up in conversations I have had with other STEM faculty and staff." Other comments about Martinez include:

- "She is always willing to help. If she sees something needs doing, she just does it with a very positive attitude."
- "Kay is thorough, conscientious and a pleasure to be around."
- "You can just tell she is a very dedicated worker and she is very much appreciated."
- "She and her staff have been amazing in keeping our areas clean, our classrooms clean, our boards cleaned, etc. It is wonderful."
- "She is very focused on doing her work right the first time and completing each task with expediency. In all my encounters with Kay she has always showed a smile and a work ethic..."

Reesa McAllister is a Secretary Senior for the Computer Technology (CTEC) Division and is described as someone who has an "exemplary" work performance. McAllister brings a "balance to our chaotic and hectic high-tech CTEC division," wrote one nominator. "She provides faculty with the peace of mind and assurance that whatever support our students or departments need will get done in a timely, efficient, and thorough process." A faculty member from McAllister's division recently shared that "Reesa should be noted for her flexibility ... She continues to expand her knowledge of our department and is an excellent resource for inquiring students and the public at large." McAllister is someone who is confident and well organized, providing "excellent support for her division." When challenges arise, McAllister not only provides support for her division, but will also offer support to other units.

For instance, "Reesa has reached beyond her division by helping with activities necessary for the Culinary Arts remodel project (packing boxes and cleaning offices)." Overall, McAllister "demonstrates a cooperative spirit and does her part to make Clark College a positive environment for faculty, staff, students and all constituent groups."

Other comments about McAllister include:

- "I appreciate her graceful diligence, her proactive approach, clear communication and delightful demeanor. Her positive attitude and warm/personal presence diffuses our stress."
- "Reesa keeps us moving forward, keeps us honest, and keeps us super-organized and informed!"
- "Reesa demonstrates a cooperative spirit and does her part to make Clark College a positive environment for faculty, staff, students and all constituent groups."

Amy Tam works as a Program Specialist 2 for Enrollment Services. Tam is described as an "exceptional employee" who "always has a welcoming smile and a positive attitude." Working in the Welcome Center, Tam's work "touches both new and continuing students, as well as coworkers across multiple departments. Each person she encounters feels special and receives the highest excellence in service." Serving as an inspiration for her coworkers to "go above and beyond," Tam's commitment is described as "admirable."

Tam oversees the Student Ambassador Program, a leadership opportunity for students who are dedicated to serving Clark College. In this role, Tam is committed to not only supervising Student Ambassadors, but also assisting them in overcoming obstacles they may encounter while trying to finish their degree program. A nominator said, "A student was feeling defeated and needed someone to help them find perspective. Amy was that person, she listened and encouraged the student."

Another nominator said, "Amy is the employee and steward of higher education that the Clark College community deserves. She whole-heartedly devotes her time and energy as an advocate and mentor to both student and college staff."

Other comments about Tam include:

- "Amy is a people person who see the strengths in others, looks for opportunities to involve them, then allows them to lead."
- "I have appreciated her professionalism and consistent commitment towards student success for some of our most vulnerable populations."
- "Amy's dedication to helping others succeed is [a] great gift to Clark College and our community."
- "I have worked with Amy Tam since 2010 in some capacity and have never worked with a more consistently positive, upbeat, competent and helpful colleague!"
- Tam is overall described as someone who is "always doing what is best for the students and her co-workers. I could not ask for a better colleague than her."

Tia Schmidt is an Administrative Assistant 3 in the Nursing Department and is described as someone who "consistently demonstrates excellence in her work." Schmidt has "excellent attention to detail" and uses her experience in project management to assist in complex projects. A nominator said this about Schmidt: "During our implementation of new software for tracking student clinical requirements, Tia pitched in and helped team members with various aspects of onboarding students. This was a large-scale project, and Tia recognized that extra help was needed in order to make the project successful. Tia made phone calls to students and met with individual students to help them access the system when needed."

Schmidt is described as a leader who takes initiative and as someone who is creative, helpful, and respectful. Schmidt's nominator said, "Tia considers the team and department in everything that she does. She is inclusive and collaborative in her work, and takes actions based on the best interests of the department, unit and college. Tia is respectful of others and is sensitive to their needs. She goes out of her way to make sure people feel noticed and recognized for their efforts."

Other comments about Schmidt include:

- "Tia takes a creative approach and finds ways to make our projects fun. She has a knack for identifying opportunities to enhance teamwork and build positive relationships."
- "She is highly organized and solves problems with a systems focus."
- "She has helped our department build positive relationships with community partners through work on the WSUV/Clark College Preceptor Event, Hilma Speights Foundation events, and others."
