

Celebrate World Cultures on International Day

Story Submitted by International Programs

Have you ever wanted to dance Bollywood style in a flash mob? Now's your chance!

The International Day planning committee is offering a free Bollywood dance lesson with Portland-based instructor, Poorna Sridhara. In this session, you'll learn basic dance moves to a vibrant Bollywood song – so that you can hit the dance floor with confidence and join the fun in a flash mob-style performance on Thursday when we celebrate International Day. Wear comfortable clothing and footwear so that you can move around freely and come ready to dance and have some fun!

Bollywood Dance Lesson (Free!)

- Monday, February 24 from noon to 1 p.m.
- Gaiser Hall, Room 213
- Learn the moves to a lively, upbeat Bollywood routine with Poorna Sridhara!
- Limited space – first come, first served.

What is Bollywood dance?

Bollywood dance is a colorful and theatrical style that blends traditional Indian dance with contemporary Western influences. Known for its expressive movements and high energy, this dance style is a hallmark of Indian films, commonly known as Bollywood movies. Sample Bollywood dance here.

Both the Bollywood dance lesson and International Day are free events open to the entire college community. Don't miss out on the fun!
